

Sound Recordists

Callum Bulmer

career summary

I have been working as a professional Sound Recordist since 1992. Initially staff at TV3-NZ shooting extreme sports, I moved to the UK and started filming specialist series and music festivals for MTV. After going freelance in 1996 I have mostly specialised in documentary work which has taken me to all seven continents, both poles and all the deserts in between. I have shot in all extremes, on all formats and I have a very solid technical knowledge. My kit is comprehensive and I can accommodate mono, stereo and surround sound requirements for film or HD. I can also handle larger music productions requiring the recording of live bands. My CV is fairly broad with credits for Doco, Drama, Film and Current Affairs for all the major broadcasters and some of the more respected Independents. Whatever it is, chances are I've been there and done it.

specialist filming skills

I am experienced in Stereo and Surround Sound recording, I have filmed aboard helicopters, boats, and cars, in mountains, deserts, jungles, cities, war zones, glaciers, archaeological digs and the odd nice hotel. I can Ski, Snowboard, Dive and Sail a yacht. I also take still photographs while on location and my work can be seen on my website www.recordsound.co.uk or in the book of the BBC series Story Of India.
